LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ BEE CAUSES TRAFFIC ACCIDENT

A bee is being blamed for a crash involving a car and a bicycle on East Madison Ave. near Slack Rd. in Athens last Thursday afternoon. Tyson Maurice Brewer told police he was driving along East Madison when a bee flew in the window and landed on his face. He said when he swatted at the bee, he must have jerked the steering wheel, and his vehicle struck Heather Rose Humphrey as she was riding her bicycle along the side of the street. She was treated at Athens Regional Medical Center for non-life threatening injuries.

◆ TWC HEADED TO WORLD SERIES

The Tennessee Wesleyan College baseball team is headed to the NAIA World Series for the first time. The Bulldogs will play Embry-Riddle this coming Friday in Lewiston, Idaho. TWC is one of 10 teams that made it to the series. The Bulldogs' record is 46 wins and 16 losses. They made it to the World Series thanks to a 12-11 win over Southern Polytechnic last Friday.

√ Athens Junior High School will have a Community Carnival from 5 to 7 p.m. Tuesday at the school. There will be games, an inflatable obstacle course, food, booths, pizza, and information about several local service agencies.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ BP officials say the tube being used to siphon leaking oil in the Gulf of Mexico is not working as effectively as it did at first. Mean-time, three top Obama administration officials are returning to the Gulf Coast to monitor the massive oil spill.

◆ A Honolulu city councilman has defeated two Democrats to give Republicans a midterm election victory in the U.S. congressional district where President Obama grew up. Charles Djou's win is the latest triumph for the GOP as it looks to regain control of Congress.

◆ Authorities say a man led Border Patrol agents on a 100-mile chase from the U.S.-Mexico border into Southern California before the driver and six suspected undocumented immigrants stopped and surrendered in Irvine.

◆ Investigators searching for clues as to what caused India's worst air disaster in more than a decade have recovered the cockpit voice recorder and flight data recorder from the charred remains of an Air India flight. The plane crashed Saturday while landing at Mangalore International Airport, killing 158 people. There were 8 survivors.

◆ A new study says children who eat or drink probiotic yogurt daily have 18 to 24% fewer coughs, stomach aches, and infections. Probiotic yogurt contains beneficial bacteria.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Brandon Partin is the recipient of the First Annual Alan Yount Memorial Rotary Service Award. The award is given to a member of the McMinn Central Interact Club, which is sponsored by the Etowah Rotary Club. Partin has just graduated from McMinn Central, where he was an active member of the Interact Club for four years and served as the club's president. The McMinn Central Interact Club is a service organization that is active in the Etowah area and elsewhere, including relief efforts after Hurricane Katrina. The photo shows Partin with his mother, Alison, and Rotary President Durant Tullock.

Dr. Bettie Carroll Elwood has resigned as director of the McMinn Anti-drug Coalition Aiding Teens (MADCAT). Chairman John Forgety said "Miss Bettie laid the foundation for developing community awareness of drug problems in our county. We wish her well as she devotes time to her family."

OBITUARIES

Lynda Lou Hope Carpenter, age 67, of Niota died May 6 at her home. She was a former employee of NHC Health Care of Athens. A Celebration of Life Service was held this past Saturday. Ziegler Funeral Home was in charge.

Paul J. Taylor, age 76, of Riceville died Saturday at his home. He was retired from Athens Stove Works and served in the Army during the Korean War. The family will receive friends Tuesday from Noon until 2 p.m. at Ziegler Funeral Home.
