LOCAL AND AREA NEWS

◆ ATHENS POLICE INVESTIGATE SHOOTING

Athens police are investigating a shooting which occurred early Monday morning at the Maplewood Apartments. Police responded to a 911 call of shots being fired. When they arrived, they found Rodney Artez Kimpson with wounds to his neck. He told officers that he and another man had gotten into an argument. He said the man pulled a handgun and fired several rounds at him while he was inside a car. Kimpson received cuts from pieces of the window glass. He gave police the name of the gunman.

◆ I-40 RATED BEST ROAD IN THE NATION

For the 4th year in a row, truck drivers have named I-40 in Tennessee the best road in the U.S. Tennessee is home to the longest stretch of I-40 in the nation; 455 miles. Tennessee's over-all roadway system was ranked third best in the nation, behind Florida and Texas.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

◆ Dr. Conrad Murray has been charged with involuntary manslaughter in the death of Michael Jackson.

◆ Stocks traded mixed Monday as investors remained wary about the strength of the economic recovery and mounting debt in Europe. The Dow Jones Industrials Average closed at 9,908.39; down 103.84.

◆ Republicans are giving a chilly reception to President Barack Obama's invitation to discuss health care in a bipartisan, televised setting later this month. Republican leaders say the Democrat's health reform bill should be scrapped and work on a new bill should start from scratch.
