LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ GREENE PICKED AS SCHOOL DIRECTOR

Robert Greene, Tennessee's Deputy Commissioner of Education, will be the new Athens City Schools Director. The Athens School Board met in a called meeting last Friday morning and voted to offer the job to Greene, who is a former Meigs County School Superintendent. Greene tentatively accepted the offer and contract negotiations are underway. School Board Chairman Mike Bevins tells The Morning Fax he hopes Greene can be on board by July 26. He will replace Dr. Craig Riggle who has retired.

◆ COUNCIL TO VOTE ON FARMERS MARKET

The Athens City Council will meet in called session at 5 p.m. tomorrow, June 29. The purpose of the meeting is to vote on a resolution authorizing the Mayor and City Manager to accept a $100,000 grant and enter into a contract. The city will have to ante-up $50,000.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

- ◆ Former Vice President Dick Cheney was taken to a Washington hospital complaining of discomfort. He was given medication to reduce fluid build-up related to his heart disease and was improving. He is expected to be discharged from the hospital today.
- ◆ The longest serving member of Congress, Sen. Robert Byrd, 92, of West Virginia, is said to be seriously ill in a Washington hospital. He was treated for heat exhaustion and dehydration, but other medical problems have developed.
- ◆ In Toronto, almost 600 protesters at the global economic summit have been arrested after they torched police cars and broke hundreds of windows. Security was being provided by an estimated 19,000 law enforcement officers drawn from across Canada, and security costs were estimated at more than US$900 million.
- ◆ A 6-month-old baby was killed Saturday and her mother injured by a falling tree branch at New York's Central Park Zoo. Police said the 33-year-old New Jersey woman was posing with her baby and her husband was taking their picture when the branch fell.
- ◆ In Lenoir City, a new $58 million four-lane bridge will be built across Fort Loudon Dam. It will also have two lanes for pedestrians and bicyclists. Construction will start next spring and take 3 years.

Driver Makes a "Wrong Turn"

Athens Police investigated a rather strange accident on Friday afternoon. A car went through the plate glass window of the Madison Avenue Carpet Store on West Madison Avenue. Police were told that Amber Nicole Ratledge of Athens was the driver of the car, but it turned-out that was not the case. A male juvenile was the actual driver and was arrested for driving on a revoked license. Ratledge was arrested for filing a false report. One other female was in the car. There were no serious injuries. Employees were in the rear of the store and were uninjured. Pieces of glass went flying throughout the store and there was major damage to the window framing.

OBITUARIES

Thelma Marie Morgan, age 42, of Athens, died last Wednesday at her home. A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Ziegler Funeral Home with visitation from 1 to 2 p.m. Wednesday.
Merrill Cameron "PeeWee" Harden, age 83, of Riceville, died last Thursday. He was plant foreman for many years at Atlas Chemical, now ICI Chemical, and was a U.S. Army Veteran. A funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at Clear Springs Baptist Church.
Maggie Bell Hampton, age 96, of Etowah, died Saturday at Woods Memorial Hospital. A funeral service was held Sunday at Bordwine Funeral Home with burial in the New Zion Cemetery.

SWEETWATER SOLDIER KILLED

Private First Class Robert Repkie of Sweetwater was killed in action in Afghanistan last Thursday. Repkie was assigned to the 82nd Airborne Division based at Fort Bragg, North Carolina. He had attended Sweetwater High School and is survived by his parents, Russell and Susan Repkie. He will be buried in Arlington National Cemetery with full military honors.

The McMinn Little League defeated Scott County Saturday night by 13-1. They play Tazewell tonight at 7:30 and Harrogate Tuesday at 7:30; both at the Athens Regional Park. The team travels to play Maryville at 8 p.m. Wednesday. They need one win to advance to the next round of the international tournament.
