LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ EARLY VOTING STARTS FRIDAY
Tennessee Election Coordinator Mark Goins predicts as many as half of the voters in the August 5th election will cast their ballots during the early voting period which begins this Friday. Goins says a hot Republican gubernatorial race among three candidates and three open congressional seats are driving interest in the elections.

◆ TEA PARTY ENDORSES MIKE BELL
The McMinn County TEA Party has endorsed Mike Bell for State Senate. The TEA Party took a straw poll at its meeting Monday night. Spokeswoman Annette Burger says the Tea Party feels Bell has served his district well in the House of Representatives and looks forward to him serving in the Senate. Bell's opponent is Lou Patten.

◆ FRIENDS SAY GOODBYE TO GOOD SAMARITAN
Funeral services for Jennifer Butler Finnell were held Monday at Bowers Funeral Home in Decatur. The 25-year-old woman was killed last Friday morning when she came across an overturned car on Highway 30 just west of Athens and stopped to help. She was studying to be a nurse and had married Justin Finnell (see photo) about a month ago.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

◆ George Steinbrenner, who rebuilt the New York Yankees into a sports empire, died Tuesday from a heart attack. He was 80. Steinbrenner had owned the Yankees since 1973 and led them through seven World Series championships.

◆ BP is preparing to test the new tight-fitting cap that has been placed on top of the leaking oil well in the Gulf of Mexico. The tests are designed to see if the cap will hold and stop the leak that has polluted the Gulf for nearly three months.

◆ Moderate Democratic Senator Ben Nelson of Nebraska says he will vote for the overhaul of banking regulations. His support gives the legislation the 60 votes it needs to prevent a filibuster.

◆ Nearly 60% of American voters say they lack faith in President Obama, according to a Washington Post/ABC News poll. The results are a reversal of what voters said at the beginning of Obama's presidency 18 months ago when about 60% expressed confidence in his decision making.

◆ Stocks rose sharply Tuesday after earnings reports from Alcoa and CSX reassured investors about the pace of the economic recovery. The Dow Jones Industrials Average closed up at 10,363.02; up 146.75 points. It's the 7th gain in a row for the Dow.
