LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ MONROE DEPUTY CLEARED IN MILLER CASE

The Tennessee Bureau of Investigation has cleared Monroe County Sheriff's Department Captain Kenny Hope as a person of interest in the ongoing Jim Miller homicide investigation. Hope has returned to his normal duties. Meantime, the TBI says Miller had been shot three times in the head before he was stuffed into the trunk of his car and the car was set on fire. Investigators are looking into possible conflicts or disputes Miller may have had with people going back several years. Miller was the Monroe County Election Commission Chairman.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ The Tennessee Wesleyan College Department of Fine Arts is hosting a play writing competition in which 10 plays will be selected for production in the "TEN for TENN" Play Festival to take place this fall. All scripts must be written by playwrights who are from or have lived in Tennessee, or must be set in Tennessee or have some reference to Tennessee. The plays must be between five and 15 minutes long. Call Eric Love at TWC for details: (423) 252-1125.

✓ The U13/14 girls McMinn United Soccer team will have a carwash tomorrow from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Auto Zone in Athens.
