LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ TEENS HURT ON WAY TO SCHOOL

Four teenagers were injured when their car went out of control and flipped upside down on County Road 70 near Riceville Thursday morning. The car then caught on fire, trapping two of them inside. The Riceville Fire Department put the fire out and the teens were extricated.

Two victims were airlifted from the scene. Their names and conditions have not been released. (Photo of wrecked car courtesy of the Riceville Fire Dept.)

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

- √ U.S. Senator Bob Corker will stop in Bradley and McMinn counties today. Corker will speak to the Cleveland-Bradley County Chamber of Commerce at 9:45 a.m. He'll be the guest speaker at the Athens Kiwanis Club's noon meeting at TWC.
- √ In Niota, Burn Road will be closed between Farrell and Ocoee Streets starting today at 8 a.m. for a major tile repair project.
- √ High School football moves into week #2 tonight. The MCHS Cherokees will travel to McCallie, while the Central Chargers go to Cleveland. Meigs County plays at Cumberland County.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

- ◆ A House subcommittee wants the owners of two Iowa companies involved in a massive egg recall to explain how eggs from their farms were tainted with salmonella which has poisoned 1,300 people.
 - ◆ Toyota is recalling about 1.13 million Corolla and Matrix cars due to defective electronic control units that could cause the vehicles to stall.
 - ◆ New jobless claims fell more than expected last week, but not enough to excite investors. The Dow Jones Industrials Average closed at 9,985.81; down 74.25 points.
 - ◆ Seven-time Cy Young winner Roger Clemens will be arraigned next Monday at the federal courthouse in Washington, D.C., on criminal charges for allegedly lying to Congress about his use of steroids.
 - ◆ Former Illinois Governor Rod Blagojevich is set to go back on trial in early January. This time he will stand alone as a defendant since prosecutors on Thursday dismissed all corruption charges against his brother.
 - ◆ The Federal Communications Commission is appealing a recent court decision that struck down a 2004 government policy that says broadcasters can be fined for allowing even a single curse word to be uttered on live television.
- NOTE: In Thursday's Morning Fax, we erroneously said that August has 5 Sundays, Mondays, and Tuesdays just once every 823 years. Our sources were wrong. A reader pointed out that August had 5 Sundays, Mondays, and Tuesdays in 1999 and 2004. It will also happen in 2021 and 2032.
