LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ THP GEARS UP FOR LABOR DAY HOLIDAY

The Tennessee Highway Patrol is preparing a major statewide law enforcement effort to save lives this Labor Day Holiday. State Troopers will hold a series of checkpoints across the state. THP Colonel Mike Walker says their message is simple - zero tolerance. He says if you are over the blood alcohol content limit "you are under arrest." Troopers will hold a sobriety checkpoint this Friday evening on the Highway 30 bridge across the Tennessee River. A driver license checkpoint will take place Saturday evening on Highway 39 at Wildwood Church in McMinn County and Monday evening at Highway 68 and Highway 304 in Meigs County.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

- ◆ Forecasters say Hurricane Earl's effect on the Eastern coast will depend on when it makes its expected turn to the northeast. A later-than-expected turn could mean the storm's eye will make landfall on the extreme eastern tip of North Carolina as a Category 3 storm late Thursday or early Friday. Forecasters also say hurricane-force winds could reach New York's Long Island and Cape Cod in Massachusetts.
- ◆ Stocks jumped Wednesday after reports of surprisingly strong growth in U.S. and Chinese manufacturing. The Dow Jones Industrial Average closed at 10,269.47; up 254.75 points.
- ◆ The nation's economic downturn has had an unexpected effect. The number of illegal immigrants in the U.S. has dropped for the first time in 20 years as substantially fewer undocumented workers from Mexico, Latin America, and elsewhere are crossing the border in search of jobs.
- ◆ A radical environmentalist who took three hostages at the Discovery Channel headquarters in Silver Springs, Maryland, while wearing what police say may be explosives was shot and killed by officers. The gunman, identified as James Lee, was killed by police following four hours of negotiations. None of the hostages were hurt.

Girl Scouts Send Cookies

Brownie Troop 40854 from Athens recently sent Girl Scout cookies to a medic unit in Afghanistan. They mailed over 3-dozen cookies. The Brownies received some donations and used some of their cookie sales profits to purchase the cookies in order to "let our troops know we care."

The Brownie Troop also collected over 40 pounds of top pops which they recently donated to the Ronald McDonald House in Knoxville. The girls are shown in the photo below holding the boxes of cookies.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY-Sept. 2

1666 - The Great London Fire started. Only six people died, but 13,200 houses burned down and 80,000 people were left homeless. The fire started in a wooden house on Pudding Lane near the Tower of London. It was this fire that prompted the first fire insurance policy.

1940 - Singer Jimmy Clanton was born. His hit records include "Just A Dream" and "Venus In Blue Jeans."

1945 - Japan signed an unconditional surrender aboard the U.S. Battleship "Missouri" in Tokyo Bay, ending World War II.

1968 - World War One hero, Army Sergeant Alvin York, died at the age of 76. He was from Pall Mall, Tennessee. He led an attack on a German machine gun nest and captured 132 prisoners and 35 machine guns almost singlehandedly. When he was asked how he did that all by himself, he replied: "I surrounded 'em."
