◆ ETOWAH WOMAN KILLED BY PIT BULL

In a Labor Day holiday tragedy, 85-year-old Mattie Daugherty was mauled to death at her home on County Road 492 by her pet pit bull on Saturday. Sheriff Joe Guy says Ms. Daugherty was attacked while other family members were working outside in the yard. The pit bull would not allow anyone to get close to Ms. Daugherty. A neighbor tried unsuccessfully to shoot the dog. Police were called and Deputy Randy Gabrel was able to pull the dog off the woman and Deputy Tim Davis was able to shoot and kill the dog. Ms. Daugherty was dead at the scene.

◆ DEPUTY STRUCK BY RICOCHET BULLET

McMinn Deputy Brad was offering assistance to Etowah police early Monday morning, when he was hit in the upper torso by a ricochet bullet fired by Etowah police at a suspect, Judson Scott Green. Green was attempting to flee police and apparently threatened them with his vehicle. Deputy Johnson was wearing body armor and was uninjured. Green was apprehended and arrested by Etowah police.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

◆ A Florida pastor's plan to burn Qurans at his church on Sept. 11 ignited a protest by about 500 Afghans, who burned American flags and shouted "Death to America," and the top U.S. commander in Afghanistan, General David Patreaus, said the preacher could be increasing the threat to his troops.

◆ President Obama is asking Congress to approve at least $50 billion in long-term investments in the nation's roads, railways, and airports in a pre-election effort to show he is trying to stimulate the sputtering economy. Republicans counter the "public won't buy it."

◆ World stocks rose on Monday on hopes that the U.S. can avoid slipping back into recession.

◆ Hurricane watches are posted for the coasts of Texas and Mexico as Tropical Storm Hermine approaches.

◆ In Guatemala, the death toll has reached 38 and may climb after torrential rains. About 50 people are believed to be buried under tons of rubble. A landslide buried two pickup trucks and a bus along a major highway. A second landslide came crashing down on rescue workers, turning them into victims themselves.
