LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ WHEN TO OBSERVE HALLOWEEN?

Since Halloween falls on a Sunday this year, you may be wondering what night the trick-or-treaters will make their rounds. Athens and Etowah city officials say it will be Saturday. The Athens Parks Department's Halloween Costume contest will be held on October 30, starting at 6:30 p.m., in conjunction with the "Haunted Hallways" at McMinn County High School. The "Street of Treats" in Etowah will be held October 30 from 4 to 6 p.m.

◆ VANDALS HIT ATHENS NEIGHBORHOOD

Athens police are investigating a rash of vandalism that took place early Thursday morning in the area of Oak, Richardson and Pope Streets. Vandals turned on several fire hydrants, knocked over mail boxes, put garbage cans and concrete yard statues in the streets, and piled brush in the streets.

◆ TVA TO LOWER RATES...FINALLY

TVA has an early Christmas present. After eight consecutive months of rate increases, TVA will cut its rates by 5 percent effective November 1st. TVA says they're able to lower rates because the cost of natural gas and purchased power has gone down. The savings will amount to around $5 per month for the average residential customer.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

◆ Chile's president calls the successful rescue of the 33 trapped miners an achievement that will bring the country a new level of respect around the world. The miners spent Thursday being examined by doctors.

◆ A former Afghan president who heads a new peace council says he is convinced the Taliban are ready to negotiate peace.

◆ The government says more people applied for unemployment benefits last week, evidence that companies are still reluctant to hire.

◆ The government says U.S. Hispanics outlive whites by more than two years and blacks by more than seven. A Hispanic born in 2006 could expect to live about 80 years and seven months. Life expectancy for a white is about 78, and for a black, about 73 years.

◆ In Chattanooga, huge 20-pound deodorizing blocks have been dropped down the manholes in the downtown area to mask the unpleasant odor coming from the sewer system due to lack of rainfall. Now, downtown Chattanooga has a pleasant "cherry" odor.

FOOTBALL: The McMinn County High School Cherokees travel to Soddy-Daisy....and McMinn Central visits Sweetwater. Meigs County has the night off. Tennessee's next game is on October 23rd when the Big Orange will host Alabama.

Tennessee House of Representatives

*Do all the good you can,
By all the means you can,
In all the ways you can,
In all the places you can,
At all the times you can,
To all the people you can,
As long as ever you can.*
