NATIONAL & INTERNATIONAL NEWS

◆ Heading into the homestretch of the midterm elections, President Barack Obama is targeting key Democratic constituencies as he tries to energize voters and build up Election Day turnout among his supporters.

◆ Chancellor Angela Merkel's declaration that Germany's attempts to build a multicultural society had "utterly failed" is feeding a growing debate over how to deal with the millions of foreigners who now call Germany home.

◆ An Iranian-American businessman freed after more than two years in Tehran's main prison visited survivors of a deadly 2008 mosque bombing as a condition of his release in a scripted event Sunday that could carry propaganda value for Iran's rulers.

◆ For the fourth time this year, Cablevision's 3 million subscribers in New York and Philadelphia are at the mercy of one of its disputes with networks. Caught in the middle are TV sports fans who couldn't view playoff baseball and Sunday's New York Giants game.

◆ An armless pianist who plays with his toes has won the first series of China's version of the internationally popular television talent show, "China's Got Talent."

FIRES KEEP FIREFIGHTERS BUSY

A tractor and a hay bailer went up in flames Friday morning. The equipment was owned by Tommy Hayes of County Road 894 in East Etowah. The tractor had a battery charger hooked to it and it's believed that's what started the fire. The Etowah Rural FD responded to the scene.

In the photo on the left, a pole barn which measured about 800 square feet, caught on fire Saturday on the Linsdale Road. It was owned by Marvin Weaver. A "Bobcat" excavator was pulled from the building. The loss was estimated at $15,000. Units from the Linsdale & Benton stations responded. (Photos by Jay Thomson)

OBITUARIES

Floyd E. Peterson, age 88 of Etowah, died Friday at his home. He was a retired conductor with CSX railroad and was a WWII veteran. Graveside services were held Sunday afternoon at Green Hill Cemetery. Bordwine Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Brenda "Penny" Wehunt Albright, age 68, of Athens, died Saturday at her home. A graveside service will be held Tuesday at 10am in Cedar Grove Cemetery. There will be no formal visitation. Smith Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Anna Marie Land, age 95, of Englewood, died Thursday at Athens Regional Medical Center. Graveside services were held Saturday at Cochran Cemetery. Bordwine Funeral Home was in charge.

Elizabeth Olsen Carpenter, age 74, of Athens, died Wednesday at NHC of Athens. Graveside services were held Sunday at Sullins Cemetery. Laycock-Hobbs Funeral was in charge of arrangements.

FOOTBALL: The McMinn County Cherokees were defeated by Soddy-Daisy 20 to 3; The McMinn Central Chargers were defeated by Sweetwater 20 to 6, and Polk County blanked Sequoyah 40 to 0. Tennessee had the week off and will host Alabama on Saturday. Oregon is now ranked #1 in the AP College Poll.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY-Oct. 18

1776 - The border between Maryland and Pennsylvania was finally agreed upon. It was nicknamed the "Mason-Dixon Line" and became the unofficial boundary between the northern and southern states.

1867 - The U.S. took possession of Alaska from Russia.

1926 - Rock 'n roll singer Chuck Berry was born. His hits included "Mabeline," "Sweet Little 16," and "Roll Over Beethoven."

1959 - The Soviet Union announced an unmanned space vehicle had taken the first pictures of the far side of the moon.

1968 - The U.S. Olympic Committee suspended two black athletes, Tommie Smith and John Carlos, for giving a "black power" salute as a protest during a victory ceremony in Mexico City.

1969 - The federal government banned the artificial sweeteners known as cyclamates because of evidence they caused cancer in laboratory rats.

Statistics say 1 in 2 Men & 1 in 3 Women will be diagnosed with Cancer.
