LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ FIVE DIE IN HIGHWAY 68 CRASH

Five people from Madisonville, including an unborn baby, were killed in a fiery head-on collision on Highway 68 at County Road 292 in McMinn County last Friday afternoon. A red Dodge Neon driven by Christian Wagner, 20, crossed the center line and struck a Wal-Mart truck head-on. Wagner, who was pregnant, died along with her unborn baby. Her front seat passenger, 25-year-old Michael Shell died along with his two children, 2-year-old Michael Shell, Jr., and 11-month-old Adrian Damion Shell. Trooper Rick Ray says the adults were not wearing seat belts and the children's child restraints were not properly installed. The truck driver was not injured.

More Local News...

- ◆ Athens police arrested Nathan Dean Charles, 25, after finding explosives and a meth lab inside his car and his residence. Police were called to the Valley Mart on South Congress Parkway early Saturday to deal with an intoxicated man, who turned out to be Charles. Police say Charles had a small amount of suspected meth on him. Officers found a meth lab, a stolen shotgun, and a box of blasting caps in his vehicle. The Cleveland Police Department's bomb squad was called to dispose of the blasting caps. Then, they went to Charles' residence on View Street, where they found liquid explosives and another meth lab. Charles faces multiple charges, including possession of prohibited weapons, possession of a stolen weapon, and possession of meth and drug paraphernalia.
- ◆ The owner of the Econo Lodge in Sweetwater is upset over her motel being listed on a website that tracks alleged bed bug encounters. The website, www.bedbugregistry.com, lists 119 Tennessee hotels with reported bed bug sightings. Pam Kshatriya says she has never had any reports of bed bug bites from people who have stayed at the Econo Lodge. She tells The Morning Fax that she has contacted the website to try to have her motel removed from the list.
- ◆ McMinn County Mayor John Gentry has a new assistant. Mark Cochran of Englewood has been hired to replace Joe Guy, who was elected Sheriff. Cochran is a 2004 graduate of McMinn Central and has been a staff assistant for Senator Bob Corker in Corker's Washington office.
