LOCAL & AREA NEWS

♦ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

- ✓ The Meigs County Community Advisory Board and the Meigs County Sheriff's Department are sponsoring a Prescription Drug Disposal Event this Saturday at the Piggly Wiggly in Decatur. This is an opportunity to properly dispose of any unwanted, unused, or expired prescription medications and over the counter medications.
- ✓ A staff member of Legal Aid of East Tennessee will see eligible clients at the McMinn County Courthouse tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. If you need help with civil legal matters you may qualify for free legal assistance. Call 1-800-445-3219 for an appointment.
- ✓ Tennessee Wesleyan College's Athletics Department has entered the Pepsi Refresh contest in hopes of winning a $250,000 grant to renovate their gymnasium. To win, TWC must be one of the top 2 biggest vote-getters. You can vote by texting 104151 to Pepsi (73774) or at: www.refresheverything.com/bulldogwish
- ✓ The annual Veterans Day service in Meigs County will take place at 11 a.m. today in front of the Courthouse in Decatur.
- ✓ Most banks, the post office, and many government offices will be closed today for Veterans Day, including state and federal. Among the closures is the McMinn County Register of Deeds office.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

- ♦ British police say the mail bomb intercepted last month at an airport in England could have exploded over the East Coast of the U.S. The device was sent from Yemen and was timed to be detonated about seven hours after the cargo aircraft carrying it left England for the U.S. The package was removed by police in Britain.
- ♦ President Obama's bipartisan deficit commission is proposing to reduce annual cost-of-living increases for Social Security, gradually raise the retirement age to 69, and possibly eliminate the tax deduction on mortgage interest.
- ♦ Fewer people applied for unemployment benefits last week. It was the third drop in four weeks and is a sign that more employers are hiring while layoffs are falling.
- ♦ On Wall Street, the Dow Jones Industrial Average closed at 11,357.04; up 10.29 points.
- ♦ The federal government is calling for larger, graphic warning labels that will take up half of each cigarette package. The proposed labels include color images of diseased mouths and lungs, cancer patients, and corpses.
- ♦ The top cable program the week of Nov. 1-7 was the Dallas-Indianapolis NFL game, followed by Fox News' election coverage.

Christmas Card Winner

Amber Scapellato, age 10, is the winner of Athens Regional Medical Center's annual Christmas Card design contest. Amber is a 5th grader at Etowah City School and is the daughter of Cindy Scapellato, a member of the B-Wing nursing team. Her design will be featured on 750 cards mailed by the hospital during the holidays. The photo shows Amber receiving a gift card from Athens Regional CEO, John Workman.

Obituaries

Shirley Ann Hurn Lynn, age 63, of Ten Mile died Wednesday at her home. Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Smith Funeral Home, with visitation from 12 noon to 2 p.m.

Pamela McMillan Sadler of Athens died Wednesday at her home. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Laycock-Hobbs Funeral Home.
