LOCAL & AREA NEWS

- ◆ AUTOPSY SHOWS MILLER WAS SHOT 3 TIMES
District Attorney Steve Bebb has released an edited version of the autopsy report on Monroe County Election Commission Chairman Jim Miller, whose body was found in the trunk of his burned car on a rural trail near Sweetwater on July 17. The autopsy report says he had been shot three times in the head, suffered blunt force trauma to his head, and was already dead when his killer set fire to his car.
- ◆ TRUCKER INJURED BY TOSSED MAILBOX
A truck driver, John Murphy, was injured early Tuesday morning when someone threw a mailbox off the I-75 overpass near mile marker 59 in north McMinn County. The mailbox shattered the truck's windshield.
- ◆ CHRISTMAS ARRIVES SATURDAY
The annual Old Fashioned Downtown Christmas celebration will take place in downtown Athens from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. tomorrow. The event will feature entertainment, shopping, food, carriage and train rides around downtown, a luminary display along College Street, "snow" on the Courthouse, children's activities in Knight Park and the Kid's Zone, pony rides, reindeer and...Santa. Admission is free. Streets in the downtown area will be closed from 2:30 to 10:30 p.m.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

- ◆ Republicans in the House blocked a bill that would have extended jobless benefits for the long-term unemployed beyond the holiday season. An extension of jobless benefits enacted this summer expires December 1st. The measure would have extended benefits through the end of February. Republicans say it would have added $12.5 billion to the nation's debt.
- ◆ General Motors stock began trading on Wall Street again on Thursday, signaling the rebirth of the giant automaker that collapsed into bankruptcy and was rescued with a $50 billion bailout from taxpayers. The stock price rose sharply in the opening minutes of buying and selling. The GM stock helped Wall Street in general, with the Dow Jones Industrial Average closing at 11,181.23; up 173.35.
- ◆ The Obama administration's former auto czar, Steven Rattner, has agreed to pay $6.2 million to settle civil charges over his role in an influence-peddling scandal involving New York state's public pension fund.
- ◆ A judge in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, has refused to stop construction of a proposed mosque that was opposed by some residents who tried to argue that there was a conspiracy by Muslims to impose extremist law on the U.S.
