Future Star Visits Athens

Remember the name Rachel Holder. She's an 18-year-old from Chattanooga who has just finished a movie and just recorded her first CD. Rachel visited WYXI Radio Tuesday to plug her first single, a re-make of Celine Dion's "Christmas Eve." (Her record is available on iTunes)

Rachel is also co-starring with Natalie Grant and Billy Dean in a made-for-TV movie titled "Decision." It's about a troubled teenage boy who goes through a lot of trials and tribulations before being led to the Lord. She also has a new Christmas video. Rachel is shown in the photo below with WYXI program director Bob Ketchersid.

Damages High In House Fire

A house owned by Candy Hooper on County Road 582 was heavily damaged by fire early Tuesday. Damage was estimated at between $200,000 and $250,000. The Etowah, Athens, and Englewood Rural Fire Departments responded. Firefighters were recalled to the scene around noon Tuesday when the fire rekindled. (Photos by Jay Thomson)
