STATE AND LOCAL NEWS

NATIONAL & INTERNATIONAL NEWS

- ◆ European Union nations agreed to give $89.4 billion in bailout loans to Ireland to help it weather the cost of its massive banking crisis, and sketched out new rules for future emergencies in an effort to restore faith in the euro currency.
- ◆ Hundreds of thousands of State Department documents leaked on the internet reveal a hidden world of backstage international diplomacy, divulging candid comments from world leaders, and detailing occasional U.S. pressure tactics aimed at hot spots in Afghanistan, Iran, and North Korea.
- ◆ A U.S. supercarrier and a South Korean destroyer took up position in the tense Yellow Sea on Sunday for joint military exercises that were a united show of force just days after a deadly North Korean artillery attack killed 4 people on a disputed island.
- ◆ Someone set fire to an Islamic center yesterday, two days after a man who worshipped there was accused of trying to blow up a van full of explosives during Portland's Christmas tree lighting ceremony. Other Muslims fear it could be misplaced retribution.
- ◆ TN beat KY 24-14 Saturday and is now bowl eligible at 6-6.
