STATE AND LOCAL NEWS

◆ COMMUNITY ANGRY OVER 3rd INCIDENT

McMinn County Sheriff Joe Guy says detectives were able to lift fingerprints from the mail box that was thrown from the I-75 overpass at mile marker 53 early last week. That mailbox struck the roof of a truck. Sheriff Guy also says that officers found fresh tire tracks at the scene. The sheriff says he hopes with reward money and assistance from the community, they will find those responsible for the 3rd incident of someone throwing an object at vehicles on I-75. Guy says it's one thing to have the law after you, but it's another thing to have the entire community after you. He's hoping someone will come forward with information that will lead to the person or persons responsible for the potentially deadly attacks.

◆ LATEST UNEMPLOYMENT FIGURES

The unemployment rate went up in nearly every county in East Tennessee in November. Here in McMinn County, the jobless rate was 12.1% in November, up from 11.5% in October. In Meigs County, unemployment in November was 12.4%, up from 11.7 percent in October. And in Monroe County, the jobless rate in November was 12.9%, up from 12.3% in October.

NATIONAL & INTERNATIONAL NEWS

◆ An East Coast snowstorm put a damper on after-Christmas shopping Sunday. But shoppers across the rest of the country scoured clearance racks and spent gift cards during the afterglow of the best holiday season for retailers since 2007.

◆ Christians were targeted by radical muslims in Nigeria over the Christmas holiday. A group of 30 armed attackers dragged the pastor out of the Victory Baptist Church and shot him to death and killed young men from the choir rehearsing for a late-night carol service. They left after setting the church and the pastor's house on fire.

◆ Some 300,000 desperately poor villagers impoverished by fighting in Pakistan's tribal belt are scrambling to feed themselves after a female suicide bomber killed 45 people outside a World Food Program food distribution center, triggering a district wide suspension of the relief project.

◆ Are you ready for some Tuesday Night Football? The NFL moved the Vikings at Eagles game from Sunday night to Tuesday because of an expected blizzard that could dump more than a foot of snow on Philadelphia. The game will be played at 8 p.m. EST., and televised nationally by NBC.

OBITUARIES - CONTINUED

THIS DAY IN HISTORY- Dec. 27

1822 - French scientist Louis Pasteur was born. He invented the process of pasteurization to preserve milk and other foods.

1845 - Dr. Crawford Williamson Long used anesthesia for childbirth for the first time, when he delivered his own child in Jefferson, Georgia.

1900 - Carrie Nation staged her first raid on a saloon at the Carey Hotel in Wichita, Kansas. She broke every one of the liquor bottles in sight. Nation usually did her damage with a hatchet; calling her vandalism, hatchetation.

1927 - The Jerome Kern and Oscar Hammerstein II musical, "Show Boat" debuted in New York City. Its star, Helen Morgan, received excellent reviews from critics of the show, a musical about riverboat show people and their romances and disappointments.

1947 - "Hey kids... What time is it? It's Howdy Doody time!" Buffalo Bob (Smith), Clarabelle the Clown (Bob Keeshan), Judy Canova and a host of others joined "Howdy Doody" for the show's debut on NBC-TV. The show stayed on the air for 13 years.

1968 - The Apollo-8 astronauts returned to earth after orbiting the moon 10 times. The mission paved the way for later moon-landing missions.
