STATE AND LOCAL NEWS

◆ TEA PARTY BUYS VEST AND GUN

Thanks to the McMinn County Tea Party, an officer with the McMinn County Sheriff's Office now has a new bullet proof vest. The Tea Party decided to "adopt an officer." Tea Party members donated $1,100 and Monday night they presented Officer Brad Johnson with a vest and new gun. The photo shows Sheriff Joe Guy on the right with Officer Johnson, his wife, and their son. (Photo by Annette Burger)

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ The last day of loose leaf collections in Athens will be this Friday, Feb. 18. Call 744-2776 to be placed on the list to have your leaves vacuumed this week. After Friday, you'll have to bag your leaves in order for the city to pick them up.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

- ◆ Italy's Premier Silvio Berlusconi has been ordered to stand trial in April on charges that he paid for sex with a 17-year-old girl and then tried to cover it up.
- ◆ Thousands of protesters poured into a main square in Bahrain's capital on Tuesday in an Egypt-style rebellion. The protesters are calling for political reforms and greater freedoms. Bahrain's King has promised to move ahead with reforms, which include loosening state controls on the media and the Internet.
- ◆ Stocks fell in afternoon trading after the Commerce Department reported unexpectedly week retail sales figures in January. The Dow Jones Industrial Average closed at 12,226.64; down 41.55 points.
- ◆ Billy Ray Cyrus says the Disney TV show "Hannah Montana" destroyed his family, causing his divorce and sending daughter Miley Cyrus spinning out of control. The country star says he would "erase it all in a second" if it would bring his family back together. Cyrus says his daughter is in a downward spiral and compares her current path with those of stars whose lives ended tragically, such as Kurt Cobain, Anna Nicole Smith, and Michael Jackson.
- ◆ China is ordering producers of film and TV shows to limit the amount of smoking on screen.
