◆ BEAR CAUGHT IN TRAP IN ATHENS

The bear that has been sighted in Athens recently now has a new home in the Cherokee National Forest. Lt. Joe Busch with the TWRA says the 200-pound male bear was caught in a trap early Wednesday morning between two houses on Dogwood Drive across from Athens Regional Medical Center. Busch says the bear had been raiding bird feeders in the area and was becoming a nuisance. He had been sighted Tuesday night and had bedded down for the night in the front yard of a residence. NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

- ◆ Bradley County authorities have arrested Aaron Lawson, 32, for the murders of Charles Phillips, 58, and his wife, Debbie, age 54. They were ambushed outside their home near Charleston, TN, Tuesday night. Police say Lawson was the father of the Phillips' grandchild and that the murders were over a custody dispute.
- ◆ U.S. stocks jumped on Wednesday as optimism about the economic recovery rose after a wave of reports of strong earnings and profit outlooks. The Dow Jones Industrial Average closed at 12,453.54; up 186.79 points.
- ◆ France vows to step up airstrikes on Libyan leader Moammar Gadhafi's forces. France also acknowledges that it has military officers already working with Libyan rebels on the ground.
- ◆ The Obama administration says it has full confidence in the senior leadership at the Federal Aviation Administration despite a string of lapses by air traffic controllers. The latest incident came on Monday when a controller allowed a plane carrying first lady Michelle Obama to get too close to a military cargo jet as the planes were approaching Andrews Air Force Base in Maryland to land. The plane carrying the first lady had to abort the landing.
- ◆ The Arizona Legislature has voted to make the Colt revolver the state's official firearm.

Easter Time Fun
