STATE AND LOCAL NEWS

◆ TROOPER AND HIS DOG NAB ESCAPEE

A prisoner who escaped from the Meigs County Jail is back in custody, thanks to Tennessee Highway Patrol Trooper Kevin Hoppe and his K-9 named "Aik." (Shown in photo to the right) They tracked down Micheal Vincent Young and found him hiding underneath an outbuilding about three miles from the jail. His freedom lasted only 90 minutes. Young was serving a 25-year prison term for the rape of a child. He escaped from the jail after he was allowed to leave his cell to use a telephone.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

NATIONAL-WORLD

- ◆ U.S. officials are trying to decide whether to release secret video and photos of bin Laden to show proof to the world that the 9/11 mastermind is dead. Officials say he was killed with a precise shot above his left eye. President Obama plans to visit ground zero in New York on Thursday to mark the milestone of bin Laden's demise and to remember the dead of the Sept. 11, 2001, attacks.
- ◆ Pakistan's president has denied suggestions that his government may have sheltered Osama bin Laden. He admits that his security forces were left out of the raid in which bin Laden was killed.
- ◆ One day after Chrysler reported first quarter profits, General Motors and Ford have reported strong sales gains in April. They say high gasoline prices drove consumers to purchase fuel-efficient cars.
- ◆ Former Mexican President Vicente Fox says the only way to end the drug violence plaguing his country is for the U.S. to legalize drugs. He says Mexico's problems are due to the fact that the U.S. consumes too many drugs that are smuggled into the country from Mexico. He proposes legalizing all drugs.
- ◆ CBS says veteran "60 Minutes" reporter Scott Pelley will take over as its evening news anchor starting June 6th. He will replace Katie Couric who is pursuing a syndicated talk show.

COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

- ✓ Over the next several days, damage assessment teams will be surveying the areas in McMinn County that were hit hardest by last Wednesday's storms. McMinn County Emergency Management Director Betty Hamby asks residents to fully document all property and structural damage with lists and photographs. Residents should also keep all receipts for any repairs or estimates. She says this information will be helpful if FEMA declares McMinn County a disaster area. Anyone in McMinn County needing assistance with food, water, or short-term shelter should call the McMinn County Mayor's Office at 745-7634. Free dumpsters for storm debris are being donated throughout May by McKinney Excavating, Coker Construction, and Erosion Solutions.
- ✓ Athens Utilities Board advises that Sweetfield Valley Road will be closed from Cedar Springs Road to County Road 704 from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. today for sewer line repairs.
- ✓ The African Children's Choir will sing at the Woodward Church of God at 7 p.m. tonight. The community is invited to attend.
