NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ NATO airstrikes hit Moammar Qadhafi's fortified compound in Tripoli early Thursday. The attack came just hours after the Libyan leader appeared on state TV for the first time since his son was killed nearly two weeks ago.

◆ Osama bin Laden's diary and other documents found in last week's raid on his Pakistani hideout show bin Laden continued to dispense instructions to the leaders of al-Qaida groups from Yemen to London. The documents show he urged them to hit Los Angeles as well as smaller U.S. cities. He said they should target trains as the Fourth of July and the upcoming 10th anniversary of the Sept. 11, 2001 attacks. He said he wanted to kill enough Americans to force the U.S. to withdraw troops from the Arab world.

◆ A spokeswoman for veteran actress Mary Tyler Moore says she will have surgery to remove a brain tumor. The 74-year-old Moore gained stardom as a suburban housewife on the 1960's TV comedy "The Dick Van Dyke Show."

◆ Evangelist Billy Graham is hospitalized in North Carolina with pneumonia.

◆ Golfer Tiger Woods has withdrawn from The Players Championship after leg injuries caused him to shoot a 42 on the front nine.
