◆ MEIGS OFFICER CHARGED IN MURDER PLOT

The TBI has arrested the Meigs County Litter Control Officer after he paid an undercover TBI Special Agent to kill his girlfriend's ex-husband. Jack "Jackie" Scroggins, 52, of Georgetown, was charged with solicitation to commit first degree murder and booked into the Meigs County Jail without bond. The TBI says Scroggins met with an undercover TBI agent two times to discuss details of the murder plot and paid him $1,000 as an advance payment and gave him $100 for a gun to commit the murder. Scroggins has been employed with the Meigs County Sheriff's Office for six years.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ President Obama has launched a new plan to lower the cost of paying back student loans. Obama will use his executive authority to implement the plan which will allow 1.6 million students to cap their loan payments at 10 percent of their discretionary income. It also forgives the balance of student loans after 20 years of payments.

◆ Republican presidential hopeful Rick Perry says his biggest mistake in the campaign so far was agreeing to participate in the debates. Perry says the debates are set up for nothing more than to tear down the candidates. He says it's hard to lay out your ideas with a one-minute response.

◆ Steve Jobs reportedly told President Obama in 2010 that he wasn't going to win re-election. According to his upcoming biography, Jobs told Obama he was headed for a one-term presidency because of his administration's anti-business climate and excessive federal regulations.

◆ Recalls are in the news. Big Lots is recalling 375,000 Chinese-made glider recliners because of an entrapment hazard. GE is recalling a gas rangetop made in Mexico because of an explosion hazard.

◆ HALLOWEEN ACTIVITIES ANNOUNCED

The City of Athens along with the Athens Optimist Club will hold the annual county-wide Halloween Costume Contest Monday night, October 31st, at 6:30 p.m. at McMinn County High School. The costume contest will be held in conjunction with the school's Haunted Hallways which is an opportunity for young people to trick or treat in a safe environment. The event is open to the public from 5 to 7 p.m. and there is no admission charge.

The costume contest is open to all children ages 17 and younger with four different age divisions, 0-3, 4-1st grade, 2nd-6th grade, and 7th to 12th grade. There will also be an Adult Costume Contest for ages 18 and up. For more information, call the Parks and Recreation Department at 423-745-4142.

◆ HALLOWEEN SAFETY TIPS

1. Young children should be accompanied by an adult.
2. Never go inside a house unless accompanied by a parent.
3. Approach only houses that are lighted.
4. Look carefully when crossing the street.
5. Wear costumes that can be seen easily in the dark and avoid masks that can obstruct vision or breathing.
6. Never eat treats until an adult has checked the treats.
7. Carry a flash light to see and be seen.
8. Stay on sidewalks or walk facing traffic. Do not walk in the street.

Obituaries

Gladys Camper Goodin, age 84, of Englewood died Tuesday at Woods Memorial Nursing Home in Etowah. She enjoyed writing poetry about life in days gone by and occasionally read them on the WYXI Radio Trading Post program. Funeral services will be at 8 p.m. Thursday at Laycock-Hobbs Funeral Home, with visitation from 6 to 8 p.m.
