STATE & LOCAL NEWS

◆ McMINN DEPUTIES SOLVE BURGLARIES

Three McMinn County residents face theft and burglary charges following a burglary at a residence on County Road 279. Deputies responded to the residence Wednesday morning after the homeowner called to report an attempted break-in and said he was holding the suspect at gunpoint. Deputies arrested David Brown, 26, of Niota. He implicated two other people, Rocky Brown, 36, and Jennifer Brazel, 29. Deputies arrested them at a nearby residence and recovered a stolen pickup truck, tools and tool boxes, a rifle, and other items.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ The state Board of Probation reminds sex offenders that they are not permitted to take part in Halloween activities. Sex offenders cannot pass out candy, cannot answer the door to trick or treaters, cannot decorate their homes for Halloween, cannot host Halloween parties at their homes, cannot go to haunted houses or corn mazes, cannot wear costumes, and cannot take any child trick or treating.

✓ The Riceville Youth Football & Cheerleading Organization will hold a pancake breakfast at Applebee's in Athens tomorrow.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ U.S. stocks rose sharply after European leaders agreed to expand a bailout fund to $1.4 trillion. In economic news, U.S. GDP grew to 2.5% during the third quarter and continuing jobless claims fell more than expected. The DJIA was up 339.51 at 12,208.55.

◆ A federal judge in North Carolina has denied an attempt by John Edwards to get criminal charges against him dismissed, thus clearing the way for a trial to begin next year.
