◆ NEW DETAILS ON MURDER FOR HIRE CASE

The Meigs County Grand Jury meets November 28th to consider the charges against former Meigs County Sheriff's Office employee Jackie Scroggins. Scroggins is accused of trying to hire a hit man to kill his girlfriend's ex-husband. The hit man was an undercover TBI agent. The district attorney's office says the undercover agent met at Scroggins' home on October 19th and arrangements were made to kill Lisa Cleary's ex-husband for $15,000. A second meeting took place October 26th in the undercover agent's car at the Dollar General Store in Decatur, where a $1,000 down payment was made by Scroggins along with $100 for the hit man to buy a stolen gun. Scroggins was arrested later that evening. He reportedly confessed the next day to making repeated attempts to get someone to kill Cleary's ex-husband at her request. The Grand Jury could also consider indicting Cleary for her role in the plot.
