Local & State News

◆ QUICK ACTION SAVES HIS DAD'S LIFE

A McMinn County man is alive thanks to the heroic actions of his son. Troy Moses was riding his tractor at the intersection of County Roads 461 and 462 Monday night when it rolled over and landed in a creek, pinning him underneath. His son got into the water with him and held his head above water until rescue personnel arrived. Moses was airlifted to Erlanger Hospital in serious condition.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

- ✓ The Athens Municipal Building will be closed on Thursday and Friday for the Thanksgiving holidays. The Recycling Center will be closed Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. The Animal Shelter will be closed Thursday and Friday. Thursday's residential garbage will be collected next Monday and Friday's garbage will be picked up next Tuesday.
- ✓ The McMinn County Clerk's Office, including their Driver's License Office, will be closed Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

◆ Stocks slipped on Tuesday as investors were disappointed by weaker U.S. economic growth than expected and continued worry over Europe's debt crisis. The Dow Jones Industrial Average was down 53.59 at 11,493.72.

◆ President Obama is calling on Republican lawmakers to make good on their anti-tax pledges by voting for his payroll tax cut extension. Obama says he and the Democrats will offer Republicans another chance next week to approve the extension.

◆ Republican presidential candidate Newt Gingrich says the answer to keeping the Social Security system is to allow younger workers to invest the money they currently contribute to Social Security in a 401 (k) style system that he says will profit far beyond the current program.

◆ The city of West Hollywood, California, has become the first city in the nation to ban the sale of clothing made from the skin or pelt of animals with hair, wool or fur. West Hollywood also bans declawing of cats.

The Morning Fax will not publish on Thursday. The editors and staff wish you a very Happy Thanksgiving. We'll see you Friday.

SWIMMING AT TWC

What do you do when it rains a lot and a small lake develops and you're a college student? In the case of Stephanie Bruner, a student at TWC, you go swimming. Professor Dick Pelley sent this photo to The Morning Fax.
