State & Local News

- ◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:
 - ✓ Learn how to prepare your family for a disaster. Betty Hamby, director of the McMinn County Emergency Management Agency, and Bill Roach, Chief of the Englewood Fire Department, will speak about preparing for such disasters as tornadoes and hazardous chemical spills, and will tell you how to make a survival kit. The program will be at 7 p.m. Thursday evening at Englewood United Methodist Church. The community is invited to attend.
 - ✓ The Riceville Youth Football Organization will hold a fundraising roadblock this Saturday from 8 a.m. to 12 noon at U.S. Highway 11 South and the Riceville access road to I-75.
 - ✓ The Outdoor Store is teaming up with the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life to raise money and awareness for cancer. You are invited to take part in a Metric Century 62 mile, Half Metric 31 mile, or an 8 mile fun ride through the rolling hills of McMinn County this Saturday. The ride begins and ends at the Athens City Middle School. Registration starts at 6:30 a.m. and the ride begins at 8 a.m. sharp.
 - ✓ Athens Regional Medical Center presents another Joint Approach workshop on April 30th, 4-5:30 p.m. Call 744-3363.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

- ◆ Newt Gingrich will officially suspend his bid for the presidency next Tuesday. Gingrich has won only two states, South Carolina and Georgia. He says he will work to help elect Mitt Romney.
- ◆ President Obama has labeled the Secret Service agents involved in the prostitution scandal in Colombia as "knuckleheads." The Secret Service says all 12 implicated agents have been dealt with. Eight were forced out, one stripped of his security clearance, and three cleared of wrongdoing.
- ◆ One World Trade Center, which is being built at the site of the fallen twin towers, could surpass the Empire State Building as the tallest building in New York as early as next week. The Empire State Building was built in 1931 and was the city's tallest building until 1972 when the original World Trade Center towers overtook it. It regained the title after the September 11th terrorist attacks. The new World Trade Center skyscraper is poised to surpass the 102-story Empire State Building.
- ◆ The Federal Reserve has repeated its intention to hold interest rates close to zero at least through late 2014. The Fed also says the unemployment rate has declined, but remains elevated. On Wall Street, The Dow Jones Industrial Average was up 89.16 at 13,090.72.
