State & Local News

◆ COST OF ELECTRICITY TO RISE IN JULY

The cost of electricity from Athens Utilities Board will rise slightly in July. Spokesman Wayne Scarbrough says residential customers will see an increase of about 6-cents a day compared to June. The July increase reflects a rise in the monthly fuel charge from TVA. Despite the rise, Scarbrough says the July power rate will be slightly lower than July of last year.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

- ◆ Commerce Secretary John Bryson has resigned for medical reasons. He was involved in a pair of hit-and-run car crashes in California earlier this month after suffering a seizure.
- ◆ The judge in the Jerry Sandusky trial threw out three of the 51 child sex abuse charges against the former Penn State assistant football coach on Thursday before attorneys began closing arguments. Sandusky still faces 48 criminal counts involving 10 alleged victims. The trial has now gone to the jury.
- ◆ The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled against the Federal Communications Commission's policy regulating curse words and nudity on television. In an 8-0 decision, the high court threw out fines and sanctions imposed by the FCC over some uncensored curse words and brief nudity on various networks. The court said the FCC failed to give the networks fair notice, prior to the broadcasts in question, that fleeting expletives and momentary nudity might be indecent.
- ◆ Chris has become the Atlantic Ocean's first hurricane of the season. Chris is located far from land, several hundred miles southeast of Newfoundland, and is expected to weaken over the next 48 hours.
- ◆ The Dow Jones Industrial Average was down 250.82 at 12,573.57.
