Local & State News

◆ AUB UPGRADES SOUTH ATHENS CIRCUITS
AUB is taking steps to increase reliability and reduce power blinks and outages for customers in the City Park area and surrounding vicinity. Spokesman Wayne Scarbrough says routing the main Circuit Eight feeder out of the wooded Crestway area and along more open highway will increase reliability for customers being served by the Rocky Mount Road substation.

◆ CHRIST'S LEGACY GETS NEW HEADMASTER
Christ's Legacy Academy has named Brent Harken to be its new Headmaster. Harken succeeds Robert McCready, who has stepped down to go into fulltime pastoral ministry. Harken has more than two decades of experience in classical and Christian schools. Most recently, he worked at Eagles Nest Academy and The Classical Academy of Franklin. The public is invited to meet the new Headmaster at 6 p.m. this evening in the Clearwater Baptist Church sanctuary.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

- ◆ Senator John McCain, former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, and former Arkansas Governor Mike Huckabee are among the first speakers named for this month's Republican National Convention in Tampa. The keynote speaker will be announced closer to the convention which will be August 27-30.
- ◆ Police in Wisconsin say the man suspected of opening fire in a Sikh temple on Sunday was 40-year-old Wade Michael Page, a former member of the U.S. Army. Seven people were killed, including Page. Page was a member of the Army's psychological operations unit. He was also said to be a member of a white supremacist music group.
- ◆ Tennessee Democrats have rejected Mark Clayton, who won the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senate last Thursday. The Tennessee Democratic Party says Clayton is associated with a known hate group in Washington and won the primary simply because he was listed first on the ballot. The Party will not do anything to support him and urges Democrats to write-in a candidate of their choice in November.
- ◆ Tropical Storm Ernesto is expected to be a hurricane by the time it hits Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula early Wednesday.
