State & Local News

- ◆ AGENT SAYS DEPUTY ADMITTED KILLING MILLER
Testimony in the Jessica Kennedy murder trial continued for a second day in Monroe County Court Wednesday. A medical examiner testified that Jim Miller, 60, the Monroe County Election Commission Chairman, was shot three times in the head and was dead before his body was set on fire and put in the trunk of his burning car. A TBI agent testified that former Monroe County Sheriff's Deputy Kenny Hope admitted to killing Miller. The agent said Deputy Hope said he burned him "like the pig he was." Ms. Kennedy is the only person to be charged with the murder. Her defense attorneys tried to paint a picture of sloppy police work and convince the jury that TBI agents did not follow up on all their leads in the case.
- ◆ ATHENS MIDDLE SCHOOL BANS PEANUTS
Athens Middle School has banned peanut butter and peanut products. Principal Mike Simmons says one child is "deathly allergic" to peanuts and as a way to keep him safe, the decision was made to ban peanut products. Peanuts and peanut oil are often used in many food items, including spaghetti sauce, chili sauce, cookies, hot chocolate, Chinese and Mexican foods, and some salad dressings.
