State & Local News

◆ HAZ-MAT TEAM SUMMONED TO SPILL

Members of the Etowah Rescue Squad were called late yesterday evening to the intersection of County Roads 609 and 660, in the Goodsprings Community, after a large quantity of diesel fuel was spilled. At least one car went sliding through the intersection, due to the oily substance. Whoever was responsible for the fuel spill is unknown. (Photo by Jay Thomson)

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ Students at McMinn County High School will host their 2nd Annual Renaissance Faire on Saturday, October 6, from noon until 5 p.m. There will be carnival games, prizes, food, and fun. Admission is $3 for Adults and $2 for Students.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ In an unprecedented and controversial move, the Federal Reserve has announced the initiation of an open-ended round of Quantitative Easing (QE3) and extended the period for which it will keep interest rates between 0 and 1/4% to mid-2015.

◆ A day after President Barack Obama accused Mitt Romney of having a "shoot first and aim later" approach to foreign policy, the White House has found itself refining Obama's claim that Egypt is not "an ally" nor an enemy. At the same time, it insisted his comment was technically true.

◆ As outrage over an anti-Muslim film spreads across the Middle East, police have been sent to the California home of the film's producer to protect him and his family.

◆ Egypt's Muslim Brotherhood is being called-out by the White House for "tweets" with mixed messages. Their English language tweets say they hope that no one in the U.S. Embassy in Cairo was harmed by protesters, while their Arabic language tweets were praising protesters at the U.S. embassy in Cairo and at other U.S. embassies across the Middle East.

◆ A Massachusetts woman says her brother, Glen Doherty, was among the Americans killed in the attack on the U.S. Consulate in Libya when the U.S. Ambassador and 2 others were killed.
