Local & State News

- ◆ LOTS OF COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:
 - ✓ The last day to vote early is Thursday, November 1st. The hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Early voting takes place at the Election Commission in the Courthouse Annex in the Madison Park Shopping Center.
 - ✓ The Tennessee Department of Safety and Homeland Security will hold special Saturday hours on November 3rd, at the eight largest driver service centers, to issue voter photo ID's for the November 6th election. The nearest centers for Saturday service will be in Chattanooga at 6502 Bonny Oaks Drive and in Knoxville at 7320 Region Lane in Knoxville. The hours will be 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.
 - ✓ The E.G. Fisher Public Library is offering "Learn to Use Excel 2010" starting this Saturday, Nov. 3rd from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Space is limited and you need to call the library to reserve a spot. Their phone number is 745-7782.
 - ✓ The City of Athens will hold their annual county-wide Halloween Costume Contest on Wednesday, October 31st at McMinn County High School at 6:30 p.m. Young people can "Trick or Treat" in the school's hallways in a safe environment. The event is open to the public from 5 to 7 p.m. and there's no admission charge.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

- ◆ Sandy, one of the biggest storms ever to hit the United States, roared ashore with fierce winds and heavy rain on last night near the gambling resort of Atlantic City, New Jersey, after forcing evacuations, shutting down transportation and interrupting the presidential campaign. Over 3 million people are now without power. The National Hurricane Center has warned New York, Virginia, Connecticut and Pennsylvania to prepare for what many are calling a "Frankenstorm", a frightening mix of rain, snow and wind that's part hurricane and part nor'easter.
- ◆ The U.S. servicemen who guard the outdoor Tomb of the Unknowns at Arlington National Cemetery will remain on duty during the storm. They will not abandon their post.
- ◆ According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Rhode Island is the 19th state to be affected by the deadly outbreak tied to steroid injections from potentially tainted medications.
- ◆ Parts of Damascus were bombed on Monday by Syrian jets in what residents said were the capital's fiercest air raids yet, at the end of what was supposed to be a four-day truce. Armed terrorists broke the truce and detonated two car bombs in the capital.

This Day In History - October 30

1735 - Our second President, John Adams, was born.

1894 - Bodybuilder Charles Atlas was born in Italy. He was a 97-pound weakling as a young man. A statue of Hercules in a museum inspired him and he began working out, using a system he called "dynamic tension." He won the title of "World's Most Perfectly Developed Man" and taught his exercise system through mail order lessons.

Obituaries

Barbara Mahery Drake, age 69, of Spring City and formerly of Athens, died Thursday, Oct. 25th at Erlanger Medical Center. A graveside service will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday at Cedar Grove Cemetery. Smith Funeral & Cremation Service is in charge of arrangements.

Anna Louise Haney, age 89, of Delano, died Sunday at Woods Memorial Hospital. A private Graveside Service will be held at a later date at Goodsprings Cemetery. Bordwine Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Carolyn Queen McKinney, age 71, of Athens, died Monday at her home. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Ziegler Funeral Home.

Want a chance to win a rifle or handgun? Go vote. That's the message from an Atlanta-area sporting goods store. The promotion caught the attention of the secretary of state's office last week and drew a complaint from a state senator who said it may break the law. The store's owner then revised the contest rules and said that anyone could enter the raffle, whether they vote or not.
