◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ The Etowah City Commission will have a called meeting at 5:30 p.m. today to have the second reading of ordinances regarding beer sales on Sunday and liquor by the drink sales and the first reading of an ordinance concerning package stores.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ For the second weekend in a row, the NFL has been rocked by tragedy. On Saturday, Dallas Cowboys nose tackle Josh Brent was charged with intoxication manslaughter after an early-morning high speed crash killed his passenger, linebacker Jerry Brown.

◆ Same-sex marriages became legal in the state of Washington on Sunday. Two elementary school teachers tied the knot at the stroke of midnight.

◆ Venezuela's President Hugo Chavez has returned to Cuba for more surgery after a recurrence of cancer. Chavez has named his vice president, Nicolas Maduro, as his successor if the disease leaves him incapacitated.

◆ Egypt's liberal opposition staged more protests on Sunday, even though President Mohammed Morsi agreed to annul his Nov. 22nd decrees that gave him near unrestricted powers.

◆ New UT head football coach Butch Jones calls his new job his "dream job." Jones has agreed to a six-year, 18-million-dollar contract. He'll be paid nearly $3.5 million for his first year, including a $500,000 signing bonus. After that, he'll be paid roughly $3 million per year with no pay raises. However, he'll get a $150,000 bonus if the Vols win the SEC championship and a $500,000 bonus if they win a national championship.

Christmas In Downtown Athens

The annual Old Fashioned Christmas was held in Downtown Athens this past Saturday. The event was sponsored by the Downtown Business Association. The mild weather brought out a good crowd, who enjoyed shopping, a petting zoo, horse-drawn carriage rides, Christmas music, and food.
