State & Local News

- ◆ ARMED ROBBERY SUSPECTS TALKING TO THE FBI
A father and son suspected of five recent armed robberies in the Athens area voluntarily turned themselves in to the FBI on Wednesday. Larry Moore and his son, Brian Rose, went to the FBI's Chattanooga office. One of the suspects was interviewed by the FBI yesterday. They're suspected of robbing four convenience stores and the Capital Bank on Decatur Pike in Athens. Sources say they believe Rose was the robber and his father drove the getaway vehicle, a white Chevrolet pickup truck. They were identified by surveillance video.
- ◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:
 - ✓ Today's Holy Week Service will be at 12:05 p.m. at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Rev. Joe Black will speak. Friday's service will be at Trinity United Methodist led by Rev. Hendree Harrison.
 - ✓ Athens First Baptist Church presents the Easter drama, "Bow The Knee," featuring the choir and orchestra tonight and tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. Admission is free.
 - ✓ The Medic Regional Blood Center's Bloodmobile will be at Athens Regional Medical Center today from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday, there will be a blood drive at Tennessee Technology Center in Athens from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the Community Tech Room.

World & National News

- ◆ Due to accusations that the Beijing government is behind a widespread and systemic hacking campaign targeting U.S. businesses, President Obama signed a bill on Tuesday that effectively bars much of the federal government from buying information technology made by companies linked to the Chinese government.
- ◆ Spam-fighting organization Spamhaus, an Internet watchdog group responsible for keeping ads for counterfeit Viagra and bogus weight-loss pills out of inboxes around the world, has been hit by a huge cyberattack. This could be bad news for email users whose incoming messages are checked against Spamhaus's widely used and constantly updated blacklists.
- ◆ Work crews removed parts of the Berlin Wall known as the East Side Gallery to make way for an upscale building project. Protesters including American celebrity, David Hasselhoff, wanted the site to be preserved.
- ◆ Jennifer Maldonado, an administrative assistant at Keller Williams Partners Realty in Plantation, Fla., who opted out of a winning Powerball pool in her office, will be receiving part of the winnings anyway. Maldonado's co-workers plan to share their winnings with her, roughly $83,333 per person after taxes.
