LOCAL & AREA NEWS

♦ FATAL CRASH NEAR JUSTICE CENTER

A wreck on Highway 30 east, near the McMinn County Justice Center, caused the death of a motorcyclist. The wreck happened around 12:30 p.m. Thursday. The victim was identified as James Michael Crowder, Sr., age 42, of Etowah. Photo by Jay Thomson.

✓ Registration for Athens City Schools Kindergarten and the Pre-K program will be held at Ingleside and City Park schools from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. today. You should register your child where he or she will attend. Your child should come with you, and you should bring the child's certified birth certificate, immunization certificate, Social Security card, and two proofs of residence.

NATIONAL & INTERNATIONAL NEWS

♦ Cleveland, Ohio police say the two brothers of the man accused of keeping women captive in his house for over 10 years, have been released from custody. Meanwhile, a judge set bail at $8 million at a brief hearing Thursday for Ariel Castro, who is being charged in the case.

♦ Boston Marathon bomber Tamerlan Tsarnaev was secretly buried in an undisclosed location outside Worcester, Mass. after a frustrating weeklong search for a community willing to take the body.

♦ Turkey is stepping up chemical weapons tests on casualties arriving from Syria's civil war to help ensure the perpetrators of any such attacks are held accountable.

♦ A worldwide gang of criminals stole a total of $45 million in a matter of hours by hacking their way into a database of prepaid debit cards and then draining cash machines around the globe and outmoded U.S. card technology may be partly to blame. Seven people are under arrest in the U.S. in connection with the case, which prosecutors said involved thousands of thefts from ATMs using bogus magnetic swipe cards carrying information from Middle Eastern banks.

♦ Swimming champ Kayla Wheeler, 16, has set a new world record for the butterfly. She was born with only one arm and no legs.
