Local and State News

◆ CROSSVILLE DID IT. CAN ATHENS?

Can Athens do what Crossville did? Like Athens, Crossville was about to call off its 4th of July fireworks show due to lack of sponsorship. However, residents of Crossville contributed $10,000 so the show could go on. Last week, the Athens Parks Department announced that the July 4th fireworks show at the Athens Regional Park had been cancelled for this year after loss of sponsorship money from Comcast and other sponsors. However, Parks Director Austin Fesmire says if residents of the Athens area are willing to raise $18,000, the Athens show can go on as well. The money must be in hand, in cash, by next Sunday, June 16th. You can mail a check to: The Athens Parks Foundation, P.O. Box 849, Athens, or you can drop off donations at the Parks Department or Finance offices at the Athens Municipal Building.
