LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ LITTLE LEAGUE TOURNEY UNDERWAY

The State Little League Tournament for 9 and 10 year olds is underway at the Athens Regional Park. The tournament begins today and continues through July 20th. There will be 300 to 500 people, including 150 players, in town for the event. Most of the games will be played at night. Lisa Bell created banners for the Downtown Business Association to welcome the visitors to the Friendly City.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

- ✓ The "Sounds of Summer" concert series at the Market Park Pavilion in Downtown Athens continues tomorrow night with "Modern Jazz Night" featuring Danger Cube. The free concert begins at 7 p.m.
- ✓ Women at the Well reports an increase in the number of students they are serving. As a result, they have a problem with transportation and need to purchase a 12-passenger van as soon as possible. The cost will be $23,500.00. If you would be willing to contribute toward the purchase of a van, send the check to 881 County Road 655, Athens, or call 745-0010.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

- ◆ House Speaker John Boehner said the vast majority of House Republicans believe they need to deal with immigration, but that they'll take a methodical, step-by-step approach and won't be held to any deadlines. Boehner said legislation to secure the border and enforce immigration laws will come first.
- ◆ In an attempt to promote faster innovation and a sharper focus on devices and services, Microsoft Corp. is reshuffling its business. The move comes amid lukewarm response to the latest version of its flagship Windows operating system and a steady decline in demand for PCs as people turn to tablets and other mobile gadgets. It's too early to tell how well the reorganization will help Microsoft compete with more nimble rivals like Apple and Google.
- ◆ Jurors in the George Zimmerman case can consider the lesser charge of manslaughter, but the judge denied a request for the jury also to consider third-degree murder after a defense attorney called the proposal "outrageous."
- ◆ In Quebec, crews are working to find the burned remains of the people presumed dead in Saturday's catastrophic oil train derailment. Police have recovered 5 more bodies, raising the official body count to 20. Workers continue to search for the remaining 30.
