NATIONAL NEWS

- ◆ President Obama may retaliate for Moscow's decision to give NSA leaker Edward Snowden temporary asylum by canceling a planned summit early next month with Russian President Vladimir Putin. Obama's scheduled one-on-one meeting with Putin during the Group of 20 countries summit in St. Petersburg, Russia on September 5th and 6th is now at risk.
- ◆ A 12-episode run of "24: Live Another Day" will debut next May on Fox re-uniting Mary Lynn Rajsckub with Kiefer Sutherland. The miniseries will take up Bauer's story several years after the events of the final season, with viewers following his foreign exploits in real time.
- ◆ The driver of the train that derailed in northwestern Spain, killing 79 people, can't explain to the judge what happened. Francisco Jose Garzon Amo said, "I still don't understand how I didn't see ... mentally, or whatever. I just don't know." He was traveling at twice the speed limit when he approached a treacherous turn.
