LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ SMITH RECEIVES LINCOLN AWARD

Athens funeral director Jerry E. Smith was presented the annual Lincoln Award at the McMinn County Republican Party's Lincoln Day Dinner this past Tuesday night. Smith was recognized for his many years of service to the Republican Party. He has been an active fund-raiser and leader in the McMinn Republican Party for many decades.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ The monthly VIVID (Very Important Volunteer Individual) Award was presented to Tim Hughes. Tim organized the McMinn County Jazz Society and The Tim Hughes Quartet. He also spearheaded the "Sounds of Summer" Concert Series held each Saturday night this summer at Market Park in Downtown Athens.

NATIONAL & INTERNATIONAL NEWS

- ◆ As part of a proposed settlement reached with city officials, the Democrat Mayor of San Diego, Bob Filner, will resign from office. A sexual harassment lawsuit was brought against him by a former aide, and more such lawsuits are expected to be filed in the future.
- ◆ In a tour bus crash along a Southern California freeway, 50 people have been injured. They received minor injuries, and nine people were taken to hospitals for evaluation or treatment.
- ◆ More surveillance secrets have been acknowledged by the Obama administration stating that it was ordered to stop scooping up thousands of internet communications from Americans with no connection to terrorism. The Obama administration claims this was a practice it says was an unintended consequence when it gathered bundles of Internet traffic connected to terror suspects.
- ◆ Trading on the NASDAQ was halted shortly after midday on Thursday due to an unknown technical glitch. The disruption sent brokers scurrying to figure out what went wrong. New questions were raised about the pitfalls of computer-driven stock trading.
- ◆ A large wildfire outside Yosemite National Park has more than tripled in size, shutting down businesses in surrounding communities and leading scores of people to leave the area during the peak of tourist season.
