NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ The U.S. government insists it has the intelligence to prove it, but the public has yet to see a single piece of concrete evidence produced by U.S. intelligence — no satellite imagery, no transcripts of Syrian military communications — connecting the government of President Bashar Assad to the alleged chemical weapons attack last month that killed hundreds of people.

◆ The White House is asserting that a "common-sense test" dictates the Syrian government is responsible for a chemical weapons attack that the President says demands a U.S. military response. But the President's top aide says the administration lacks "irrefutable, beyond-a-reasonable-doubt evidence" that skeptical Americans, including lawmakers who will start voting on military action this week, are seeking.

FOOTBALL SCOREBOARD: The MCHS Cherokees were defeated by Cleveland 49 to 7. Sequoyah defeated McMinn Central 20 to 6. Greenback beat Meigs County 49 to 13 and East Hamilton defeated Walker Valley 56 to 35. The University of Tennessee defeated Western Kentucky 52 to 20 and the Tennessee Titans defeated Pittsburgh 16 to 9.
