State & Local News

◆ FIERY CRASH CAUSES EIGHT FATALITIES

A church bus from North Carolina had its left front tire blow-out on I-40 Eastbound Wednesday afternoon in Jefferson County. The bus crossed the eastbound lanes, traveled across the median, and clipped a westbound Tahoe SUV. The bus then impacted a Semi rig causing it to burst into flames. Six people in the church bus were killed along with a person in the Tahoe and the driver of the Semi. The bus was returning to Statesville, NC after taking some members to Gatlinburg for a church retreat.

National & International News

- ◆ Authorities say a man arrested at Jacksonville International Airport told security screeners he had a bomb in his backpack but they only found an electronic scale and batteries. The 39-year-old man from Bosnia was charged with making a false report. His action closed the airport for 5 hours, caused the airport to be evacuated, and displaced flights and passengers from all over the world.
- ◆ U.S. lawmakers from both parties have expressed a willingness to give the President's outreach to Iran a chance to end Tehran's nuclear standoff with the West, but at the same time they are crafting tough new U.S. economic sanctions to further isolate the radical Islamic republic.
- ◆ A 71-year-old Louisiana prisoner who spent 41 years in solitary confinement and is now dying of cancer was released late Tuesday from prison.
- ◆ The President has signed a last-minute bill, approved by the House and Senate, to ensure that during a government shutdown members of the military would still be paid.
- ◆ The online insurance marketplaces created by the new health care law began with a stalled website. Millions of Americans received an error message or a menu that didn't work when they tried to log in to the website.
- ◆ A San Diego judge has sentenced Danne Desbrow, 36, to prison for 53 for murder. After the sentence was given, the judge left the bench and presided over the wedding of Desbrow to his girlfriend, Destiny Winters, 33. The Judge baked a Bundt cake for couple.

Recognize Any of Your Stuff?

Yesterday, we reported the story of the recovery of items taken in burglaries in six counties in the area. The photo below from McMinn County Sheriff Joe Guy shows officers going through a few of the recovered items.

One of our readers, Tim Henson, sent us a photo of his miniature horse, "Peppy". The horse measures just 14 inches tall. Tim says the horse is small, but he makes up for it by being "Peppy".
