Local & State News

◆ LONGTIME RADIO PERSONALITY PASSES

Hayward Armstrong, a personality on Athens radio stations since 1967, died Tuesday morning at Athens Regional Medical Center. He was 85. Armstrong was known for his news reports on WLAR/WJSQ since 1980. Before that, he was general manager at WENR in Englewood. He came to Athens from Alabama in 1967 to work at WYXI Radio as a country music DJ and news reporter. See funeral arrangements on page two.

◆ 10 APPLY FOR TAX ASSESSORS JOB SO FAR

The deadline for applying for the position of interim McMinn County Property Assessor is noon tomorrow, Nov. 14th. As of Tuesday, 10 people had submitted resumés. The McMinn County Commission will interview the applicants and then choose one of them to fill the position left vacant by the resignation of Jerry Anderson. That person will serve until September 1, 2014. The person who will fill the final two years of Anderson's term will be chosen in next year's elections, and will take office September 1, 2014.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ Former President Bill Clinton says President Obama should fulfill his promise to Americans that "if you like your health care plan, you can keep it" even if it means modifying the the new healthcare law known as "Obamacare."

◆ About 66,000 people who have their individual health insurance plans through BlueCross/BlueShield of Tennessee are receiving letters notifying them that they must pick a new plan due to Obamacare. The letters inform the clients that their current BlueCross policies do not meet new federal standards under Obamacare.

◆ NASCAR driver Trevor Bayne has been diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis. He says he plans to continue racing.

◆ When it comes to a choice between their Christian witness and a business deal involving alcohol, the members of the Duck Dynasty have chosen alcohol. Duck Dynasty and Duck Commander Wines have recently formed a partnership. Duck Dynasty star Willie Robertson was scheduled to speak at a benefit for a Christian organization in Bristol, TN. However, organizers have cancelled the event due to the wine deal. They say the partnership with the wine company will send the wrong message to young people who were planning to attend the event. Tickets are being refunded.

TWC Students Spend Fall Break Working

A group of Tennessee Wesleyan College students spent their fall break doing volunteer work in Biloxi, Mississippi. Fourteen students and two TWC staff members made the eight-hour drive to Biloxi where they took part in various community service projects.

Pictured below are students Kate Lowe and Isabella Daniels who helped build a new educational facility along with participants of the Moore Community House Women in Construction program. The project is designed to teach low-income women the skills needed to join the construction trade.

Obituaries

Joseph Hayward Armstrong, age 85, of Athens died Tuesday at Athens Regional Medical Center. He was a native of Gadsden, Alabama, and a resident of Athens for over 46 years where he was a radio broadcaster. He began his broadcasting career in Athens in 1967 at WYXI Radio. He later worked at WENR in Englewood, and has been a news reporter for WLAR/WJSQ since 1980. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. The family will receive friends from 4 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at Ziegler Funeral Home. Burial will be in Attalia, Alabama.

TUESDAY'S MARKET REPORT: U.S. stocks edged lower as investors scrutinized comments made by the presidents of the Federal Reserve banks of Atlanta and Minneapolis for hints about when the U.S. central bank may begin reducing its stimulus program. Earlier today, Dallas Fed President Richard Fisher stated the Federal Reserve's monetary stimulus program cannot continue forever. The Dow Jones Industrial Average was down 32.43 at 15,750.67. The Standard & Poor's 500 Index was down 4.20 at 1,767.69, and the NASDAQ Composite Index was up 0.13 at 3,919.92. Volume on the New York Stock Exchange was moderate, with 616.07 million shares traded.
