Local & State News

◆ ATHENS POLICE & FIRE REPORT

The Athens City Council held its monthly meeting Tuesday evening and awarded its VIVID (Very Important Volunteer Individual) Award to Father Hendree Harrison of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Rev. Hendree was nominated for the award for his work with the homeless in Athens.

Police Chief Chuck Ziegler submitted the crime report for March. There were 59 thefts, 13 assaults, 10 burglaries, five motor vehicle thefts, two sex offenses, and one robbery. Police officers wrote 474 citations for moving violations.

Fire Chief Jim Dyer reported that Athens firefighters responded to 38 calls in March, with a total loss of $354,500. The biggest loss was the Western Sizzlin Steak House which suffered $350,000 in damages.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ Dick Hoyt and his son, Rick, who has cerebral palsy, has become a fixture on the Boston Marathon course, but after running it more than 30 times, the father-and-son team has decided it's time to say goodbye. Dick Hoyt pushed his son, in a wheelchair for their first race in 1977 which was a five-miler. The duo has competed in 1100 athletic events including more than 30 Boston Marathons. Dick Hoyt is 74 and Rick is 52. The 2014 Boston Marathon will be held on April 21st.

◆ Kansas prosecutors have filed state-level murder charges against the white supremacist accused in shootings that left three people dead at two Jewish community sites in suburban Kansas City.

◆ Jordan's ambassador to Libya was kidnapped by masked gunmen as he rode to work in Tripoli on Tuesday. They shot at his car and wounded his driver. The incident was the latest targeting Libyan leaders and foreign diplomats in the increasingly lawless North African country.

◆ The U.S. Navy's robotic submarine, Bluefin 21, cut short its first mission looking for the lost Malaysian jet because of too-deep ocean waters, but began its second 20-hour underwater mission on Tuesday. The data collected by the sub was analyzed and no sign of the missing plane was found.

Athens Native Promotes Reading

Kristin O'Donnell Tubb, who grew up in Athens, has written three children's books. Kristin returned to Athens this week to speak to students at the Athens city schools to encourage them to read. Kristin's books are titled Selling Hope, Autumn Winifred Does Things Different, and The 13th Sign. Selling Hope tells the story of a young girl who sells pills to protect people from Halley's Comet which was rapidly approaching earth in 1910. Autumn Winifred tells the story of residents of Cades Cove in the 1930's whose land was taken over by the federal government to be part of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Kristin now lives in Nashville and is married to the grandson of country music pioneer Ernest Tubb. Her parents are Jack and Helen O'Donnell of Athens. Kristin was interviewed by WYXI Radio Tuesday morning.
