◆ ATHENS WOMEN SURVIVE OCEAN ORDEAL

Two young women from Athens survived 8 hours on the ocean after they got caught by stormy weather while paddleboarding. Cayci Underwood, 27, and her half-sister, Summer Underwood, 21, set out from Tybee Island, Georgia, last Tuesday. Fortunately, they were wearing life jackets. After drifting for several hours, they came in sight of Hilton Head Island, nearly 8 miles from their starting point. The sisters say people on the beach helped them out of the water and told them where they were. They were sunburned and exhausted, but otherwise okay.
