LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ BE SAFE FOR HALLOWEEN

The Athens Police Department has some safety tips to keep you and your children safe while Trick or Treating on Halloween night:

Use reflective costumes and carry flashlights, glow sticks, or flashing decorations that will make you more noticeable in the dark.

Children should always be accompanied by a responsible adult.

Make sure your older kids have a cell phone and tell them to stay in populated areas and well-lighted areas.

Never go to a stranger's house. Do not eat any treats until they are brought home to be examined by an adult.

◆ "OPERATION BLACKOUT" FOR SEX OFFENDERS

The Department of Correction will conduct "Operation Blackout" tonight with random visits to the homes of sex offenders who must adhere to the following guidelines for Halloween: Remain in their homes from 5 p.m. to 5 a.m., keep porch lights turned off, do not open their doors for trick-or-treaters, do not display fall decorations, do not wear costumes, and open their doors only for law enforcement or probation and parole officers.

NATIONAL AND WORLD NEWS

◆ Accused cop killer, Eric Frein, who was one of the FBI's most wanted fugitives, has been captured alive. Both a federal law enforcement source and a Pennsylvania law enforcement source confirmed that Frein is in custody. Frein has eluded authorities since September 12th, when he allegedly killed one Pennsylvania state trooper and injured another during an ambush of the Blooming Grove police barracks.

◆ Brittany Maynard, a terminally ill woman who expects to take her own life under Oregon's assisted-suicide law says she is feeling well enough to possibly postpone the day she had planned to die. Maynard expected to kill herself November 1st, less than three weeks before her 30th birthday emphasizing that she wasn't suicidal, but wanted to die on her own terms and reserved the right to move the date forward or push it back.

◆ FOOTBALL SCHEDULES & SCORES: McMinn Central closes its season at Chattanooga Central tonight. Several teams played last night because of Halloween. The Cherokees were defeated by Ooltewah, 30-12. Meigs County beat Tellico Plains, 47 to 18. The UT Vols will play at South Carolina on Saturday with the kickoff at 7:30 p.m. on the SEC Network.
