NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

- ◆ Senator Bernie Sanders endorsed Hillary Clinton Tuesday and said that he will do everything he can to make certain she wins the 2016 presidential election. However, Sanders did not say he was quitting his campaign.
- ◆ Citibank has informed the Venezuelan government that it will stop providing services to "certain accounts in the country" as Venezuela's socialist economy continues to spiral downward.
- ◆ Baton Rouge police officers allegedly say that they saw the butt of a handgun in Alton Sterling's pocket and have stated they saw Sterling try to reach for the gun during the altercation that led to his shooting death last week.
- ◆ The inmate who stole an officer's gun and shot four people, including two fatally, was being moved from a holding cell inside the Berrien County Courthouse in St. Joseph, Michigan. Larry Darnell Gordon was handcuffed at the front of his body before the incident occurred.
- ◆ Attorney General Loretta Lynch told a House panel on Tuesday that the growing divide between law enforcement and the communities they serve is "the issue of the day facing our nation," and Americans must simultaneously recognize "the pain of law enforcement who feel themselves under attack" and the pain of those "who feel that they do not have an opportunity to fully participate in this great democracy."

GETTING READY FOR THE BIG RACE

The 2016 All American Soap Box Derby activities continue throughout the week at Akron, Ohio. The City of Athens is represented by Jaxon Long, Ashleigh Turner, and Haylee Rodgers. The photo below shows Jaxon and his dad, Dustin, working on Jaxon's's stock car prior to a practice run. Athens Parks Director Austin Fesmire is in Akron, and will be doing live reports each day this week on WYXI Radio (AM-1390). He'll also describe the races involving the Athens youngsters live on WYXI Radio. (Photo by Austin Fesmire)
