State & Local News

◆ HONORING THE MIA/POW'S

DAV (Disabled American Veterans) Chapter #93 has set up an MIA/POW table to honor veterans and raise awareness for disabled veterans at the Athens Federal Community Bank Main Office in Downtown Athens. Each item in the display carries unique meaning, including an actual uniform from the first Gulf War.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ The annual Women at the Well Banquet will be held this Friday, March 17th, at 6:30 p.m. at Woodward Church of God. Bob Sorge will be the speaker. For tickets and information, call 745-0010.

National & World News

◆ The Syrian government has deliberately exploited the United Nations aid delivery system. Millions of Syrians in besieged and hard-to-reach areas are being deprived of urgently needed food and medicine. The majority of Syrians in need continue to live without essential food and medicine because the Syrian government arbitrarily restricts or denies the deliveries.

◆ The Marine Corps commandant, Gen. Robert Neller, answered tough questions from U.S. senators Tuesday about the growing scandal of explicit photos being shared on the Marines United Facebook page and other websites.

◆ MORE COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ As part of the building program, the Athens City Schools will be conducting a traffic study around the City Park and Athens City Middle School campuses beginning this week and continuing until the end of the school year. Workers and traffic cameras will be located at different streets and intersections.

✓ Anyone interested in becoming a Practical Nurse is invited to meet with the nursing faculty at Tennessee College of Applied Technology-Athens at an Open House on March 28th from 3 to 7 p.m. Refreshments will be provided. In just 12 months, you can be a licensed professional earning competitive wages.

Captain Jon Delivers the Cargo

Jonathan Ketchersid, a graduate of McMinn County High School, has recently been promoted to Captain with FedEx Express. He flies a wide-body Airbus 300. Jon now lives in Florida and flies out of Memphis. During his career with FedEx, he has flown virtually all over the world. He currently flies primarily in the U.S., with occasional trips to Mexico or Canada. He is the son of Morning Fax editor Bob Ketchersid, and has two children, Jack and Kayla. The photos show Captain Ketchersid in the cockpit and the plane he flies.
