National & World News

◆ Alabama Republican Senate candidate Roy Moore has been accused of sexual misconduct or impropriety by five women. He has denied any wrongdoing and points to a political conspiracy as the reason the allegations are being made public now.

◆ A fourth person killed in a Tampa neighborhood was shot from behind early Tuesday morning. Authorities believe this may be related to a string of unsolved killings that has left a community on edge.

◆ At least five people are dead from an apparent random shooting spree Tuesday in rural Northern California. The shooter was killed by police.
