State & Local News

◆ TREE TOPPLES ON BUSY ATHENS STREET

A large tree caused a power outage and resulted in a major street closing in Athens for almost 7 hours on Thursday. A tree on property along Green Street fell around 3:24 a.m., taking out power lines and breaking a utility pole in the process. The downed lines and damage to the pole required AUB power crews to close Green Street between Highland Avenue and Forrest Avenue. Callers reported to AUB that they heard a loud bang and then a power outage occurred that effected nine customers. Power crews were able to restore power around 8:30 a.m. and tree trimming crews removed the debris and had the street reopened around 10:30 a.m. (Photo submitted by Wayne Scarbrough with AUB)

National & World News

◆ Mexican police said this week that a rusty water heater emitted the gas that killed an Iowa family in Mexico last month. A state attorney's office pushed back that idea and said that the cause had not been definitively found.

◆ A 7-year-old girl from Austin, Texas climbed Africa's tallest mountain, Mount Kilimanjaro, alongside her mother, to honor her late dad and made history as the youngest girl to climb all 19,341 feet. This is according to a website that tracks records on the famous mountain.

◆ China has formally filed a complaint against planned U.S. tariffs on Chinese goods and has requested consultations over the Trump administration's plans to impose tariffs. Consultations give each party an opportunity to discuss the matter and to find a satisfactory solution without proceeding further with litigation.

◆ The governors of states bordering Mexico responded Thursday to President Donald Trump's call for them to send National Guard troops to help secure the southern border.

THURSDAY'S MARKET REPORT: U.S. stocks continued to gain as global trade concerns ease. Technology and consumer discretionary shares led the advances with technology companies like Facebook and Amazon rebounding from recent weakness. The Dow Jones Industrial Average was up 241 points or 1.0% to 24,505. The Standard & Poor's 500 Index was up 18 points or 0.7% to 2,663, and the NASDAQ Composite Index was up 34 points or 0.5% to 7,077.
