Local & Area News

◆ STORM TAKES DOWN TREE LIMB

Last Thursday night's storms blew this large tree limb onto a boat in a yard on McMinn Avenue in Athens across from City Park School. (Photo by Richard Newman)

National & World News

- ◆ Dorothy Craig, a three-year-old girl from Cleveland, Texas, may very well have saved her mother's life and her younger siblings, by calling 911 when her mom collapsed on the floor. Her mother taught Dorothy how to use a cell phone because she suffers from narcolepsy, which causes people to suddenly fall asleep.
- ◆ A woman in Maine, 51 year old Carol Sharrow, has been charged with manslaughter after she hit a man while driving out of control onto a baseball field during a little league game Friday evening. Sharrow has two previous convictions for driving under the influence.
- ◆ An FBI agent is in big trouble after his service weapon fell out of its holster while he was attempting a back handspring at the bar of a whiskey distillery in Denver. The agent accidentally shot a fellow patron in the leg while retrieving his handgun.
