STATE & LOCAL NEWS

◆ SUMNER WINS HISTORICAL AWARD

Athens City Manager C. Seth Sumner has been given a Special Commendation award by the Tennessee Historical Commission. Sumner was recognized for facilitating and supporting the City of Athens' successful 2017 application to the Certified Local Government (CLG) program. The CLG program provides technical assistance and grants to local governments who are committed to protecting their historic and architectural heritage for future generations. Sumner says he is grateful to be recognized by the state's historical commission, but adds "the real winners are the property owners of our beautiful city."

National & World News

◆ After over 24 hours on the run, the man police say murdered his ex-boss with a hatchet at a gym here in Tennessee, has been arrested. According to the Metro Nashville Police Department, Domenic Micheli, 36, who was an employee at The Balance Training Gym, walked into the facility on Monday morning and stabbed his former supervisor with a hatchet.

Helping to Stock the Shelves

at its finest!

Earthworms are some of the cleanest, most helpful creatures in the world! Their excreta (waste) is formed in tiny, ball-shaped, black pellets called castings. Worm humus (manure) is the end-product of the breakdown of organic matter by earthworms, also known as vermicasting. Worm castings last a long time.
