STATE & LOCAL NEWS

◆ STATUE HONORS HARRY BURN & MOM

The late State Representative Harry T. Burn of Niota and his mother, Febb, have been honored by a statue erected behind the East Tennessee History Center in Knoxville. Four of Mrs. Burn's great-grandchildren attended the statue dedication last Saturday. They are, left to right: Cathy Burn Allen, Sandra Burn Boyd, Sara Roseanne Burn, and Jack Burn. Rep. Burn, at the request of his mother, cast the deciding vote that gave women the right to vote 100 years ago. (Photo by Tyler Boyd)

National & World News

◆ President Trump and Kim Jong-un of North Korea met in Singapore, with hopes of ending seven decades of hostility and the threat of a nuclear confrontation. At stake is the international desire to ease the North's provocations, poverty and extreme isolation as well as the American goal of ridding North Korea of its nuclear arsenal. The brutal dictator's desire is to remove American weapons from the Korean Peninsula and be recognized as a player on the world stage.

◆ COUPLE HURT IN MOTORCYCLE CRASH

Monte and Janice Cox of the Head of the Creek community in McMinn County suffered non life-threatening injuries in a motorcycle wreck last Friday evening. A truck pulling a trailer pulled in front of the motorcycle at the intersection of Highway 307 and County Road 362. Monte Cox had to "lay" his motorcycle down and slide under the trailer. The Coxes were airlifted to UT. (Photo by Lynn Ingram with Englewood Rural Fire Dept.)
